

Legal Waiver for Translator for Child Custody Evaluation

I, _____, the undersigned, hereby acknowledge and agree to the following terms and conditions concerning the use of a certified translator during the child custody evaluation process:

- 1. Right to a Certified Translator: I understand that I have the right to hire a certified translator to be present during any aspect of the child custody evaluation, including in-home visits, phone conferences, or any other related proceedings.
- 2. Professional and Accurate Translation: I understand the importance of clear and accurate communication during this process. If at any point during the child custody evaluation process, I believe that the translation services that either myself and/or my evaluator has provided is not professional, accurate, and/or I am experiencing difficulties in understanding, I shall immediately notify the evaluator to express my concerns before her departure from my home on the day of my evaluation.
- 3. Additional Home Visits and Phone Conferences: I acknowledge if additional home visits and/or phone conferences are required, additional fees will be applicable for these extra services and will be due immediately upon invoice receipt.
- 4. I have read, understood, and have willingly signed this legal waiver, affirming my rights and responsibilities in securing a certified translator for the child custody evaluation process, and I am waiving this right and service.

Printed Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Witness (if applicable): _____